

Rhonda Romero

Public Affairs Specialist, Social Security Administration

Rhonda Romero began her career with the Social Security Administration (SSA) in 2001. In 2014 she became the Public Affairs Specialist for New Mexico and areas of West Texas. Rhonda currently serves on SSA's National American Indian and Alaska Native Policy Workgroup. She also serves on the Dallas Regional Native American Council. Rhonda holds a B.A. from the University of New Mexico. Rhonda is a native of Santa Fe, NM where she currently resides.